

STUDIO ART (ART)

About the program

Art is defined as the study and mastery of the visual language of art forms in order to effectively and persuasively contribute to the creative, intellectual, and educational life of our society. This degree program allows students to gain technical and conceptual mastery of a variety of visual mediums; critically analyze and evaluate all aspects of visual culture using contemporary, historical, and multicultural perspectives; understand the interdisciplinary nature of art making; and prepare for the specific demands of a profession in the fine and/or applied art fields. The proposed Associate in Arts in Studio Arts degree is in compliance with SB 1440 (Education Code section 66746). Students will be prepared to transfer into the CSU system to complete a baccalaureate degree in a similar major such as Art or Studio Arts. This degree prepares students to pursue a baccalaureate degree in Studio Art.
