8 Steps to Get Accepted into College of the Redwoods Residential Life

1. Complete your 2021-2022 FASFA (https://fafsa.ed.gov/) with College of the Redwoods' school code, 001185. The sooner you complete this, the smoother your transition to College of the Redwoods will be. Note that it can take up to 8 weeks for College of the Redwoods to receive your FASFA.
2. Apply to College of the Redwoods (http://www.redwoods.edu/admissions/apply.asp). Also be sure to check your residency (California Resident/ Oregon Exchange/ Out-of-State)
3. Check your MyCR email account. Important information will come from the Financial Aid Office, Business Office, and Admissions.
4. Start saving some money now! The Housing application requires a $500 first payment, for which Financial Aid cannot help.
5. Complete orientation. Not able to make it to an in-person orientation? Complete our Online Orientation and then email Counseling & Advising to set up an appointment to develop a Student Education Plan (This is a housing requirement as well).
6. Complete the Housing application, including the $500 first payment. Without a complete Housing application that has been approved, we are not able to reserve a space for you. We have 150 spots on a first-come, first-served basis.
7. Register for classes and pay to stay! Make sure to register for 12 or more units and pay your fees prior to De-registration to avoid being dropped.
